I HEARD THE BULLETS WHISTLING BY

In honor of survivors of Iwo Jima and all nightmarish combat

by J. Franklin Foster

*I heard the bullets whistling by—
They whistled past; I did not know why.
Despite the gore it's all those sounds
That whizzed and zipped and brought men down,
Of bullets thudding into flesh
That keeps alive the ghoulish mess.
It's surprising, yes, that time has quelled
The sights of troops that spilled and fell:
Through Abrams, Barrett, Cohn and, Dane,
Through Wills, and Ox, and Young, and Zane.
All fought their best, did what they could,
Were Heroes all, yet still I stood.
Suppressed in mind are not the smells
Of burning flesh or powdered shells.
It's not the faces, figures and falls
That echoes in my chamber halls.
No, none of those still haunt my mind—
Though surely each could be unkind.
No, what still pricks and pains and pounds—
In dreaded calm, I hear those sounds...
The sounds of bullets whistling by,
Whistling and whizzing for those to die.
Yet they did miss—by whose decree?
This blessing, this curse—why, God? Why me?
Whistling and whizzing by my head,
They thudded into buddies soon to be dead.
The bullets pounded and pierced the air,
They killed and killed and didn't care.
So many heroes, so many friends
So many lives had come to an end.
Yet I survived and don't know why,
Why did I live, and why did they die?
But life moves on, and so I found
Life must be lived above the ground.
I worked my job and earned my share,
My wife and I have raised kids who care.
I'm happy grown, now old and gray
I'm happy rocking time away.
Yet still there're times when I recall
A group of men who stood so tall,
Who saved the free and fought so brave
And served so well before the grave.
I see their smiles and feel their souls,
I feel their loss and mourn their tolls.
Still hear the bullets whistling by—
And one day soon, God'll tell me why.*

OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTING IN CEDAR CITY

from Lt. Del SCHLOSSER

IRON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

On November 11 at approximately 1:00 p.m., Cedar Communications received a phone call from a female reporting threats made by her husband towards herself, her adult son, and law enforcement. The residence is located near 820 South and Sunset Dr. in Cedar City.

SUBJECT DIES AT SCENE

Officers from the Cedar City Police Department responded to the scene, announced their presence, and requested the subject come forward with his hands visible. The subject approached law enforcement officers while pointing a handgun in their direction. Law enforcement fired multiple rounds and the subject was struck. Law enforcement immediately began lifesaving efforts. Medical personnel responded and the subject was pronounced deceased at the scene. No law enforcement officers suffered physical injury.

The Iron/Garfield/Beaver Critical Incident Task Force is currently investigating this incident. Further information will be provided when available.

UTAH LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

My wife Chris and I had the opportunity to go to Gettysburg this past month for a legislative conference and it was a powerful experience. Being at the site of Gettysburg, where crucial and devastating battles took place, was a humbling reminder of the sacrifice that went into both creating and maintaining a nation united.

While there we walked the path the Confederate Army took during the famous Pickett's Charge. The feeling of sacred reverence that prevails while on the battlefield where so many brave men and a few women lost their lives is very strong. Today we celebrate Veterans Day. On Veterans Day, we recognize and honor the sacrifices made by the millions of Americans and their families who have served our nation both in times of peace and war.

Veterans Day is not simply a holiday; it represents something that should resonate deeply within each and every one of our hearts. My dad served in both the Navy before WWII, and the Army during WWII. I was fortunate to hear him talk about some of his experiences.

Those stories really resonated with me and created a deep gratitude in me for the military and those who put their lives on the line to defend and protect our great nation. I want to express my deepest gratitude to, and wish to honor, the contributions made by those who have served our country in the past, and those serving now, who show great courage, commitment and patriotism. They represent the best of us and exemplify the best in us.

Interim Highlights

We once again returned to the Capitol on October 15 and 16 to convene in our interim and appropriation subcommittee meetings. Below are some of the highlights I'd like to share with you from the month.

Tax Restructuring Proposals

This month, the Tax Restructuring and Equalization Task Force began the recommendation phase of their work. This involved reviewing six different proposals and resuming public comment. Additionally, the task force voted to move forward with drafting a bill based on the co-chair's proposal. This proposal seeks a balancing-act approach to tax restructuring, which includes a cut to the state income tax rate, the full restoration of the sales tax on food, a food tax credit to offset the negative impact on low-income households, a tax exemption for Social Security Income and a proposal to remove the state constitutional earmark to use income tax exclusively for education. In addition to these ideas from the co-chair's proposal, the task force also voted to include ideas from other proposals, including a feminine hygiene tax exemption and to include an Earned Income Tax Credit. This proposal would result in an overall tax cut for all households. A rough draft of the bill was presented on Nov. 7 at the Task Force meeting.

This process is far from over as the task force will meet a number of more times over the next couple of months to discuss and refine their recommendations. I know it is hard but I would ask you to be patient as we thoughtfully work to find solutions that will benefit all of us.

SEN. EVAN VICKERS

UTAH SENATE DISTRICT 28

Vaping

Vaping-related illness continues to be an alarming problem in our state, and in the nation, with the number of cases continuing to rise. We have multiple committees studying this issue, each from different perspectives. This month, two different committees discussed different legislation we could consider in the upcoming session. The Education Interim Committee discussed draft legislation, "Electronic Cigarettes in Schools Amendments," which addresses student use of alcohol, tobacco, electronic cigarettes products and other substances through education and prevention programs and discipline policies. Additionally, the Judiciary Interim Committee adopted, as a committee bill, draft legislation, "Tobacco Retailer Amendments," which modifies the definition of a retail tobacco specialty business, amends the number of times a peace officer may conduct an investigation of a retail shop for underage tobacco sales and amends permit violations for tobacco retailers.

Intergenerational Poverty Efforts

In 2012, the Utah Legislature established the Intergenerational Welfare Reform Commission to delve into the influences on families experiencing poverty. Every year, the commission reports on challenges and effective initiatives based on statewide programs and public, private and community efforts. The 2019 report demonstrates significant progress among those first identified as experiencing intergenerational poverty with students graduating high school, adults experiencing higher rates of employment and increasing wages and counties implementing positive outcomes through resources.

With nearly seven years of data, Utah is working to address and reduce the number of children experiencing intergenerational poverty.

In addition, the Intergenerational Poverty Plan (IGP) Implementation Program Extension Action bill draft was approved during October interim to extend its sunset date to January 1, 2023.

Take Back Day

Preventing prescription drug abuse starts with the disposal of potentially dangerous, unused, expired or unwanted drugs from homes. Utahns participated in National Prescription Drug Take Back Day on October 26.

According to the Utah Department of Health, our state has seen a significant increase in cases of opioid misuse, overdose and death since 2000. Utah has, unfortunately, consistently ranked top 10 in the nation for overdose deaths in the last decade. Additionally, drug overdose deaths are the leading cause of accidental death, surpassing deaths caused by firearms, falls and motor vehicle crashes.

Addressing Utah's opioid epidemic begins in our homes. By disposing of your unused prescription drugs at select collection sites you can do your part in lowering the chances of drug abuse and overdose. Over our last three years, Utah has collected more than 90,000 pounds of medication.

What do you think?

I appreciate this tremendous opportunity you have given me to serve as your State Senator. We are dealing with very important issues this year and I hope you will reach out and share your thoughts and insights with me. I work very hard to remain highly accessible and responsive, and I welcome the opportunity to talk to you. Thank you so much for your trust and support. Please reach out to me anytime; evickers@le.utah.gov, or 435-817-5565.

Sincerely,
Senator Evan Vickers

OPINION

From the Editor

That rings a bell

While Italian innovator Antonio Meucci is credited with inventing the first basic phone in 1849, and Frenchman Charles Bourseul devised a phone in 1854, Alexander Graham Bell won the first U.S. patent for the device in 1876. Imagine if they could see the phones of today! With the advancements of the first push button phone introduced on November 18, 1963, courtesy of the Bell Telephone Company and the first cell-phone ten years later on April 3, 1973, courtesy of Motorola, technology was advancing at a rapid pace. Of course, it wasn't that long ago that most phones hung on the wall with rotary dials and confining cords. Here's the real kicker, the iPhone has only been around since 2007!

COREY BAUMGARTNER
MANAGING EDITOR

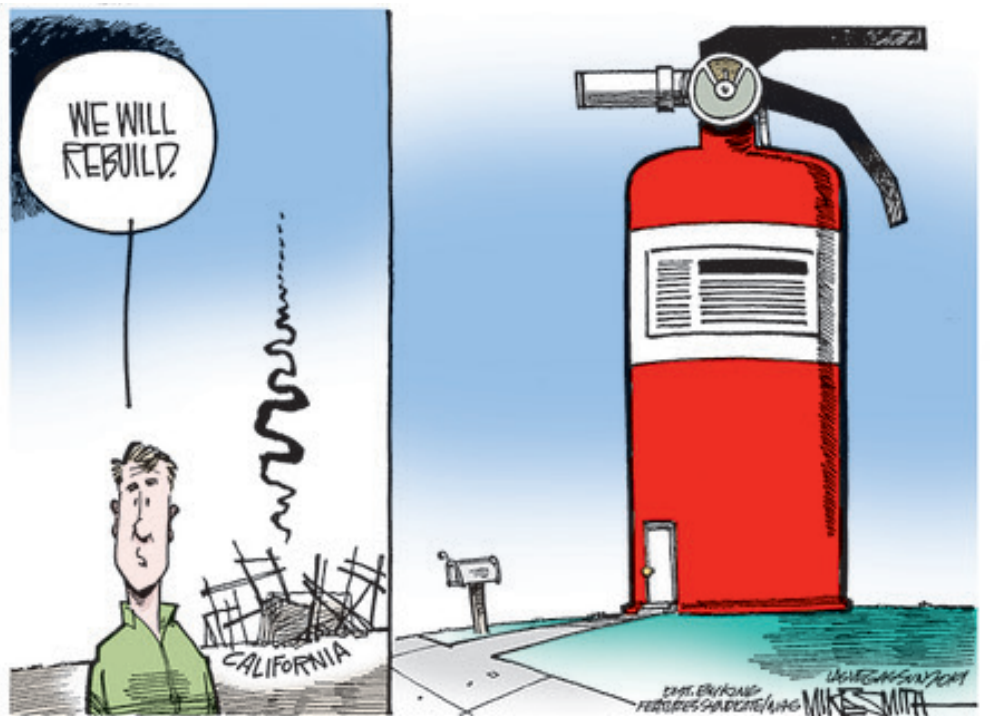

We've certainly come a long way from, "Mr. Watson, come here. I want you." But have we really? When we text more than we talk to each other and when we look at our phones more than the road ahead, I wonder if Mr. Watson may have been tempted to feign deafness in that historical moment. Don't get me wrong, I'm glad that he didn't, but don't let life pass you by because you're too busy buried in the latest technological advancements.

To the Editor

Impeachment

Dear Editor:

Congressman Stewart's "Standard" from November 1 states that "IMPEACHMENT SECRECY IS ABSURD AND UNFAIR," and that he "VOTED AGAINST CONTINUING IMPEACHMENT INQUIRY." These points serve not to "find and defend the truth, and to defend this institutional process," as he claims, but to persuade Utahns to cast aside their ethical concerns in favor of continued Republican power--ethics be hanged.

The case for investigation seems warranted. The President's actions indicate that his top priorities are not the United States and our Constitution. They aren't "America first." Suggesting a foreign power investigate political opponents is "Donald first." Originalist arguments suggest corruption as a reason for impeachment. Stewart weakly says the President's actions are "objectionable," but "essentially a policy difference." Crime is not necessary for impeachment--the impeachments of both Justice Samuel Chase and President Clinton show as much.

Investigative committees: 47/103 members were Republicans. Stop feigning complete lack of access. Rep. Stewart: Please keep an open mind and see that justice is served. That's what we want from you, not unquestioning loyalty to the party.

Scammers

Dear Editor:

It should be called as it is, the "UNITED SCAMMERS OF AMERICANS", the "US of Aers".

Big business and societal organizations that have evolved and been thriving for several years are holding us hostage and successfully operating under the guise of: "TAKE EVERYTHING YOU CAN FROM THE POPULACE NOW!" Our technology genius has opened the door to all types of criminology without much recourse in this area.

How many times has your computer been compromised, phone call privacy violated, continual interruptions of robo and scammer calling, commercialization, bank accounts frauded, and the list goes on. Why must we have our rights to privacy, security, health and happiness be compromised by villains? What can be done to stop this madness?

IRON COUNTY TODAY

Two million pounds of chicken recalled:

Simmons Prepared Foods Inc. has issued a recall for two million pounds of chicken products after a concern that there may be metal contaminants in the products. The manufacturer is based in Arkansas and recalled products where distributed to Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Georgia, Minnesota, Oklahoma and Pennsylvania. The items were produced between Oct 21 and Nov 4.

Trump Administration considering 'modernizing' national parks:

The Outdoor Recreation Advisory Committee was dissolved Nov. 1 and no action has been taken so far; but the committee has recommended "modernization," such as expanding Wi-Fi and equipment rentals provided by the private sector, and ways to make the outdoors more appealing in order to maintain interest and access to the parks. The committee's suggestions also include more private sector involvement and blackout dates for senior discounts.

Utah middle school students win 16k in awards:

SUU hosts Utah's Society of Range Management

by Kelsey KEENER

IRON COUNTY TODAY

Members of the Utah Section of the Society of Range Management gathered at Southern Utah University for the annual section conference last week.

The theme for this year's conference was The Science and Success of Revegetation, and included contests, presentations and networking opportunities. The SRM has sections throughout the country, and members and university range clubs focus on studying, conserving, managing and sustaining the natural resources of rangeland.

Randall Violet, Associate Professor of Agriculture at SUU and advisor for SUU's Range Club, said the annual meeting allows members of various organizations to come to together.

"We have representatives from federal agencies, state agencies, academia (the universities throughout the state) and then land managers and land owners can come and share ideas, network, listen to presentations on current science, past management, current management – all kinds of different land management practices," he said. "The university (range) clubs come and compete in some contests, the plant identification contest and the Undergraduate Range Management Exam contest, so that they can get prepared to go to the parent society meeting which is the international meeting"

Brie Hardy and Tabitha Hughes from Brigham Young University and Eli Hartung from Utah Valley University were the top scorers for the plant identification contest this year. Hughes, Hardy and Kierstin McClintock, also from BYU, were the top three scorers for the URME contest as well.

Violet added that hosting the meeting at SUU provides added benefits.

"This is the second time that we've hosted it here, so it gets our range club members involved in the workings of the organization," he said. "We can showcase our program, we can showcase our campus, we can showcase our town. The biggest thing is, our program is new, (and) Utah State's program is 101 years old -- it's cool to be able to let them know what we're doing and see what they've done. We're new and we need to inform people of what we're all about and how we're placing students into the workforce."

The international SRM meeting will be held in Denver, Colorado from Feb. 16 to Feb 20 next year.

STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN A "QUIZ BOWL," determining who can answer the most questions from a past Undergraduate Range Management Exam for a prize.

DAR, Quilts of Valor, Lion's Club join to celebrate Veterans

from Aliene OVERLY
FOR IRON COUNTY TODAY

At the Nov. 5 meeting of the Lion's Club, all the Veterans were thanked and honored with poppies, reminiscent of Flander's Field.

Three members were honored by the Quilts of Valor program. To find out more about this worthy program contact Crystal Farinella at crystal.farinella@govf.org.

The Bald Eagle Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution also presented the Lion's Club an opportunity to honor veterans at Christmas time with the Wreaths Across America program. The Wreaths Across America program aims to cover every Veteran's grave in all cemeteries in America with a wreath.

This year the local chapter has raised enough money to cover the 113 graves

Cedar Airport announces new flight schedule

by Kelsey KEENER
IRON COUNTY TODAY

The Cedar City Airport flight schedule will be updated beginning December 4.

Airport Manager Nick Holt presented the new flights to the Cedar City Council during last week's meeting. There will now be departing flights from Cedar City to Salt Lake City at 6 a.m. and at 3:11 p.m.; and arrivals from Salt Lake City into Cedar City at 2:46 p.m. and 9:43 p.m.

"I think it's going to be a good thing for our community," Holt said. "...What this does for the traveling person, they'll be able to go up to Salt Lake and spend all day in the valley and be able to return home that same day."

The new flight schedule is specifically designed to provide both business and leisure travelers with access to hundreds of daily flights to nearly 100 nonstop destinations from Salt Lake City (SLC). All Delta Connection flights from Cedar City to SLC are onboard the Bombardier-manufactured Canadair Regional Jet 200 (CRJ200) and will be operated by SkyWest Airlines.

Holt explained that travelers will also be able to catch connecting flights from and into Salt Lake City more conveniently.

The new flight schedule will begin Dec. 4 and be available through March 15, 2020 until runway reconstruction begins.

Republican women host Shore Creek community members

by Kelsey KEENER

IRON COUNTY TODAY

Hildale Mayor Donia Jessop and Cherish Families Director of Operations Shirlee Draper attended this month's Iron County Republican Women meeting to discuss their efforts to repair the Hildale and Colorado City, Arizona community.

Mayor Jessop is from Hildale and is the first female mayor in the town's history. She explained that she was raised in an atypical polygamist family as her father had two wives and she was one of 16 children. She added that she was raised with education, holiday celebrations and programs such as theatre plays.

"We had education, and then along came Warren Jeffs," she said. "... He is the sole destruction of what I knew as my hometown. He came along and he is the one who took away education, which was where everything turned around. He sent thousands of people away and split families up."

Mayor Jessop said that as Jeffs came to power he put the community through what she called a judgment process to determine which community members were worthy of living the "united order." Between her, her husband and her 10 children, only one of her family members was deemed worthy. Her nine-year-old daughter was then supposed to be sent to live with a different family.

"I went in and I talked to my husband, freely and openly for the first time in my entire marriage – but more importantly, for the first time in 3 years since (Jeffs) had taken over," Mayor Jessop said. "I slammed his door open -- put a hole in the wall with the doorknob --and I said I will not break this family up."

She explained that although she was dedicated to her religion at the time and believed she was doing the right thing, Jeffs and the other leaders of the community were not. After telling her husband she would not break her family up, she decided to move to Saint George and lived in the Santa Clara area for three years before her husband wanted to move back to Hildale. Mayor Jessop agreed to move back after a pros and cons list revealed there were more reasons to than not to.

When she moved back to Hildale in July 2017, Mayor Jessop began a grassroots coalition to start reconstructing the community. The coalition slowly gained support and as election season started to come around, she said she knew it was her responsibility to run for mayor. Although she has no affiliation with the religion anymore, she considers the people of that community to be her tribe.

"I had a knowledge that it was my turn to stand up for my people," she said. "In the last two years, we have been able to help hundreds more that have chosen to come out and be a part of regular society and we've been able to help clear a path for them and make it an easier transition to them."

Mayor Jessop added that during her time as mayor, most of what she has accomplished has been simply through listening.

"Mainly what I did is I shut my mouth and I listened," she said. "I listened to the people – what is it that you need? And since I had already walked that walk, I was walking alongside them. I got it. I didn't have to say 'what are you talking about? What do you mean you don't have as many rights as men? What do you mean that men aren't getting what they need?'"

Draper, who was born and raised in Colorado City, Arizona, also felt that Jeffs was not leading properly and spent six years saving up enough money to move out of the area. She explained several barriers she faced, including having four small children, no income, no rental or credit history and being treated with hostility.

"I was navigating these two worlds," Draper said. "I need to leave this one but I'm not welcome in the other one. And not only that, but I will give up all of my family when I leave this place, they have to shun me. I have to give up my identity, I have to give up my sense of belonging."

Orchestra of Southern Utah gives poetic musical concert

by Rachele HUGHES

FOR IRON COUNTY TODAY

The Orchestra of Southern Utah invited music lovers to discover why live music offers more than just listening to instrumentals or classical movements on YouTube or Spotify during their latest concert Poetic Origins on November 7 in the Heritage Center.

This season their theme centers around the origins of music, inviting listeners to find the storytelling aspects, emotional layers and inspiration music has always had on society. This most recent concert focused on musical poetry by performing movements from Romeo and Juliet by Sergei Prokofiev, Romanze by Max Bruch, "Tara's Theme" from Gone With the Wind and a symphonic poem from Franz Liszt.

Curiosity prompted me to research the meaning of a musical poem before I attended the concert and therefore added to my experience as I accepted the encouragement from OSU President and Master of Ceremonies, Harold Shirley, to imagine scenes inspired by the music.

What impresses me the most about OSU's performances is this added layer of education and thought applied to each concert that elevates their concert series to emotion-inducing events. Along with bringing a beautiful cultural experience to Cedar City, OSU is creating intriguing musical interludes.

While I would have been fine with fewer movements from Prokofiev's Romeo and Juliet, there were moments I felt as if we were in the middle of a feud between the Montagues and Capulets or on a balcony at night with an awkward Juliet. The most dynamic portion of this concert was guest conductor Dr. Jianan Yan who danced, acted and swayed through the Romeo and Juliet suites. It was impossible to keep eyes closed as he brought energy to the concert even during the slower or more sleepy musical moments.

OSU's conductor Xun Sun took the conductor's podium following Yan and was joined by Viola soloist Ling Yu. Yu joined the orchestra in performing Bruch's Romanze, Op. 85. During this movement I remembered another reason we attend live music events as the audience watched the orchestra breathe in unison, bows move across strings and the flutter of Yu's fingers on the viola during a vibrato, all retelling a classic romantic poem.

Review

The finale movement of Symphonic Poem #1 by Liszt took us with Liszt on a journey up the mountains and it was a wild ride that left the audience thinking "What is next?" This is the nature of the composer and 19th-century musician Liszt — emotional, unexpected and complex. OSU kept up with the frenzied pace of this epic music, even if there were a few moments where they lost their crispness and the music got a little muddled. They also had magnificent moments when they swelled to their full volume or conquered an especially complex section. If anyone was lulled off to a relaxing sleep before the final number they were certainly roused awake by the final note of Liszt's journey up and down the mountain.

In the end, I remembered why listening to musicians play live, pour their passion into music and invite an audience to participate is so much better than halfway listening to an orchestra with a pair of earphones and a YouTube video. There is a shared experience, there is learning, there is awe at the talent and dedication of composers, musicians, and conductors. I can't wait to see what the Orchestra of Southern Utah brings to the Heritage Center next.

The school's theatre department aspires to deliver a timeless musical that all ages will love. The musical will show November 13th through 16th and November 18th at 7 p.m. Tickets are $7 at the door, $10 for reserved seating and $2 for CVHS students with their student ID. ## Tribute to Stephen Sondheim with SUU Opera Theatre

by Ashley H. POLLOCK

SUU COLLEGE OF PERFORMING & VISUAL ARTS

The SUU Opera Theatre is doing a tribute to Stephen Sondheim titled, All Sondheim, for his upcoming 90th birthday on March 22, 2020. They will perform November 13 through November 16, 2019 at 7:30 p.m. in the Thorley Recital Hall of the SUU Music Building. This concert is free and open to the public.

Sondheim is quoted as saying, "To be part of a collaboration is to be part of a family, and for me - the only child of constantly working and mostly absent parents, a kid who grew up without any sense of family - every new show provides me with one. It may be a temporary family, but it always gives me a solid sense of belonging to something outside of myself. I want people to enjoy what I write. I'm a product of Broadway, no matter how pretentious anybody thinks what I write is. I'm not writing for myself. I'm writing to entertain, to make people laugh and cry and think."

Students will be performing songs from A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum, Into the Woods, A Little Night Music, Sunday in the Park with George, Sweeney Todd, Follies, Company, Assassins, Evening Primrose, and Anyone Can Whistle. Carol Ann Modesitt serves as the director with Cameron Kinnear as the pianist and Megan Goodrich as the choreographer.

Stephen Sondheim's work as a composer-lyricist over the past four decades has set the standard for modern American musical theater. He has won seven Tony Awards for his songwriting and received a Pulitzer Prize for his show, Sunday in the Park with George. His mentor and surrogate father was Oscar Hammerstein.

Professor Modesitt says, "I chose to do an evening of Sondheim because I admire his ability to write sophisticated lyrics and many memorable melodies."

This 'n' that

by Mary Anne ANDERSEN

CEDAR CITY ARTS COUNCIL

America, right now, is, to quote a phrase my daughters use, a "hot mess". Sometimes one uses it to describe her own current condition. Another might use it to describe the state of a student. I have an instant visual response when I hear it. I see someone in a state of panic, a state of awareness that everything is out of control and there is no recourse. I visualize weeping, sweating, and wringing of hands over a circumstance of one's own creating by over commitment and under application. The need is to calm down and think of what to do next.

I think of our poor country in this state or did until I read Nothing to Envy, by Barbara Demick. The book, a finalist for the National Book Award in journalism, tells of six individuals who defected from North Korea to finally land in South Korea, where Demick followed their stories over a number of years. To say I was appalled would be an understatement.

I read of a country so poorly managed by an ego-maniacal leader that it literally ceased to function: no food, no electricity, no freedoms for individuals to better their situations through self-reliance. In fact, working to better your circumstances was considered a crime against the state, an accusation that the government couldn't take care of you. People were organized to observe and tell on each other for minor infractions; to eat required foraging for edible weeds; to have money was suspect unless you were a member of the Workers' Party.

And the really scary part was that lack of knowledge about the outside world allowed everyone to think that the whole world lived that way. They were told that there was nothing for them to envy any other place in the world.

If you want to read something that makes us look good, I highly recommend this book. There might be a copy or two at Main Street Books.

A warm thank you to Dale and Jolene Heit, who have just sold Cedar Music to new owners. When I first began patronizing the store, it was Munson Music, and I continued to visit the store several times a month when the Heits took over. They were unfailingly pleasant to me, eager to meet my music needs or just visit about family or, yes, in recent years, the hot mess our country was becoming. I wish them a happy retirement, which by our own experience, means just moving on to new adventures.

We lament change, thinking that new will inevitably mean less. But I was relieved to hear that sweet Cami, who everyone knows is the real brains behind the operation, will still be there, smiling and knowing what I need before I've even fully articulated it.

I just walked across the street in the most beautiful late autumn weather imaginable. I am cold in the winter, but fall in Cedar City is as good as it gets, in spite of what my students from Las Vegas think.

Iron Mission Days

CEDAR CELEBRATES 168TH BIRTHDAY AT FRONTIER HOMESTEAD

by Shay BARUFFI

IRON COUNTY TODAY

Happy birthday Cedar City! The Frontier Homestead Museum present Iron Mission Days every year in celebration of Cedar City's birthday, founded November 11, 1851. The museum offers pioneer related activities, crafts, and living history demonstrations.

Museum staff demonstrated baking in a wood-fired oven, dipping candles, crafting yarn dolls, rope making, wood cutting, atlatl throwing, and metal working with a blacksmith. The event featured storytelling concerning the Hunter House on the museum grounds and tales of the Mormon Battalion. In addition to all of these fun activities, visitors had the option to go on a Model T ride and a ride on a stagecoach.

Amy, a staff member with the Frontier Homestead Museum, demonstrated baking in a wood fire oven; "Baking in a woodfire oven is a little different than making something like a pizza or flatbread. It's better to wait until the fire dies down so that the oven is closer to a set temperature." She made delicious cranberry cornbread and then spiced it up with some jalapeno cheddar cornbread.

Iron Mission Days at The Frontier Homestead is a fun way to get a glimpse of what life might have been like in the past. Test your wood cutting and atlatl throwing skills next year at The Frontier Homestead Museum's Iron Mission Days.

ARTIST RECEPTION – RAE LEWIS AND STEVE THOMSEN, 5-8 PM, Art Works Gallery, 16 N 100 W, Cedar City. The show entitled “Latitude of the Observer” will feature a selection of paintings by Rae Lewis and paper collage by Steve Thomsen. The exhibit will be on view until December 18, 2019. About Rae Lewis: By the time I became an adult, the drama, beauty and colossal scale of the terrain of southern Utah were deeply embedded in my consciousness. The geology and geography of my childhood home define my visual awareness and they are at the center of my impulses as a painter. Lewis’ work has been exhibited in several notable group shows throughout the west. Her paintings are in the collections of many Los Angeles artists and writers. About Steve Thomsen: “The beauty and mystery of the geologic and atmospheric phenomena I have encountered is inspiring, and in the 1990s I moved to southern Utah to be near this compelling landscape. In consequence, my suburban-surrealist advertising art aesthetic evolved in conception and execution. My recent photocopy collages superimpose simple geometric shapes, diagrammatic lines, variegated textures and saturated colors to portray, in abstraction, space, time and the transformative benevolence of nature.”

IRON AXE IN CEDAR CITY AIMS TO PROVIDE a unique, indoor recreation opportunity to the community.

Axe throwing comes to Cedar City

by Kelsey KEENER

IRON COUNTY TODAY

Community members now have the opportunity to practice throwing axes and knives indoors at a new local business – Iron Axe.

Iron Axe opened its doors to the public on the first of this month, with a grand opening and ribbon cutting last weekend. Participants were able to try their hand at axe throwing for a chance to win various prizes and enjoy corn dogs.

Co-owners Ryan Anderson, Jeff Barney and Jason Beach decided to open a business together in August.

“We were headed up the mountain to do this activity with a bunch of families, and for some reason we got on the topic of axe throwing,” Anderson said. “I had been throwing just in my backyard for a couple of weeks anyway, Jason (said) ‘yeah I’ve always wanted to start a business’, and (Jeff) works with insurance.”

A few weeks later, the three began the process of opening Iron Axe.

Beach said they hope to bring a unique, indoor recreation opportunity to the community.

“We want to bring a family-friendly, fun place for people to come and recreate indoors with something like this, because there’s just not a whole lot available right now,” he said. “We want a place for kids and families and college students to come have fun.”

Patrons can play games by awarding points based on where their axe or knife sticks in the target, or throw for fun, and enjoy soda and peanuts.

Anderson explained, “Throwing axes isn’t really as dangerous as it sounds,” and Beach elaborated. “We do have safety procedures, and as long as people operate within those safety procedures then it is really safe and it’s fun,”

Beach said.

Iron Axe is located at 151 South Main Street in Cedar City, and is open Monday to Thursday from 5 p.m. to 11 p.m., Friday from 5 p.m. to midnight and Saturday from 1 p.m. to 11 p.m.

The truth about freedom

Did you watch TV, Netflix, Hulu, Amazon Prime or YouTube today? Were you able to find something delicious in a fridge full of food, or from convenient fast food franchises? Maybe you went to work, school, or church? Maybe you slept in, took the day off, caught up on chores, or visited family and friends? I’m certain there were many other challenging choices in your day.

Speaking of choices, did you celebrate Veterans Day on Monday? Do you honor and hug the heroes in your life? Do you enjoy quality time with your children and embrace friends through their and yours triumphs and tragedies? What other freedoms do you enjoy or eschew? Do you make the most of your choices? More importantly, how do they make the most of you?

Regardless of our rigorous schedules and daily duels, we face thousands of choices every day. Sometimes we have so many choices and challenges that we feel overwhelmed; like we’re stuck in so many ruts that we’ll never get out. When we feel overwhelmed, it’s easy to think any choice will do. We want to choose the right, but sometimes we settle for what works right now. We hope that a quick fix, or counterfeited version, will get us through our tough times. But this lack of responsibility can double our troubles and repeat perilous and painful patterns in our lives. My poignant point is not to focus on the cheap choices we’re bombarded with daily, but rather, the expensive experiences we chose to partake of or let pass by through the misuse or abuse of our freedoms.

The saying is true that freedom isn’t free, but that doesn’t stop some from spending it lazily or foolishly. Of all the countries and peoples in this world we not only have more freedoms, we have a deeper responsibility to protect and make those freedoms count. Even with unlimited freedoms we must learn to limit or prioritize our choices. Making wrong, or unwise choices can undermine the fullness of, or even forfeit those freedoms that we enjoy every day.

True freedom comes not from having unlimited choices to do whatever we want, it comes from what we do with those choices and by taking a more proactive responsibility for how they will affect our lives and the lives of others, now and in the future. Perhaps one of the greatest spoils of war is the wisdom and desire of not selfishly spoiling ourselves, but selflessly helping others live good lives also.

In the coming days, I implore each of us to explore and expand our freedoms more responsibly. Only then will we be able to make our lives more meaningful, prosperous and free. In this we will not only honor our past predecessors and current protectors, but we will ensure endearing and enduring freedoms that will provide pathways of prosperity for our posterity, our country, communities, our hearts and our homes; from sea to shining sea.

IRON COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

Enoch Elementary

Enoch Elementary is collecting gift boxes for Operation Christmas Child. Families can fill their own boxes or donate to the class boxes. Students are donating school supplies, toys, necessities, or money for shipping. "This is a great opportunity for students to practice giving to others in need," said 5th grade teacher Mrs. Meachum. All gift shoeboxes are due November 21.

Thanksgiving Point visited 3rd graders to teach them about how to be a scientist. They practiced by dissecting a tulip bulb.

Enoch Tigers had a spooktacular Halloween parade. Some classes studied the History of Halloween and the Day of the Dead, like Mrs. Braden's 4th grade class who made masks.

This week also included Red Ribbon Week, for students to learn to say no to drugs and bullying. Southern Utah University athletes and mascot Thor encouraged students to be safe by being drug and bullying-free.

Canyon View Middle

The CVMS HOPE Squad hosted a regional conference on October 29th which was held at SUU. Over 200 students and advisors from Iron, Kane, and Garfield County schools attended. Dr. Danny Hatch, a psychology professor at SUU, was the keynote speaker. He talked about happiness and how to increase hope. Other topics addressed included the importance of self-care for HOPE Squad members, and how to be effective squads. It was a great experience for the students who help others in our school.

The 7th grade class was treated to some hands-on field trips last week. They attended one of three: Lion's Mouth Cave, Old Iron Town, or Holt Dairy Farm. Some of our students were able to witness a live birth of a baby calf. It was awesome! Then they were able to go in and sit with the week-old calves and hold them and pet them. The kids were amazing! Some of them were able to milk a cow (and some got pooped on in the process—even Mrs. Wasden). Other students were able to identify pictographs, see the process of iron ore, and milk a cow. What a wonderful experience for all!

Escalante Valley Elementary

Escalante Valley Elementary held its annual Halloween Carnival on October 30th, where students, families and community members gathered to celebrate an evening of fun. Thanks to the generosity of our parents and local businesses, our school had a record-breaking fundraiser event!

East Elementary

Our Spanish Dual Immersion students love this time of year because they get to learn about the Day of the Dead. This year it was on November 1st and 2nd. Our fourth-grade students created a traditional Day of the Dead altar with pictures of their relatives. This celebration is one of the most representative and specific practices for Mexican culture, a tradition that for many years has been remembering and honoring those who have advanced us on the road to the afterlife after death. These practices help integrate artistic and cultural appreciation and offer new perspectives to the educational community and at the same time reflect on the values of other cultures.

Three Peaks Elementary

Third grade classes had the opportunity to visit the Southern Utah Museum of Art this past week. Students viewed the traveling exhibition which shared the story of Utah's contribution to the completion of the transcontinental railroad and examined the railway's transformational effects on Utah. Students also visited the Frehner Museum of Natural History where they learned about the national park system, public lands, and the animals and plants that live in this environment. We would like to thank Southern Utah University for the educational opportunities it provides for our students.

After both museum visits, students stopped at Sizzler for lunch to eat and practice proper restaurant etiquette. Students learned how to put their napkin on their lap, start eating when everyone else does, stay seated, never chew with their mouths open, say thank you, and clean up the table area when finished. We would like to thank Sizzler and our waitresses for this fun experience.

South Elementary

South Elementary 1st and 3rd grades went to the play, Frog and Toad, at the Randall Jones Theater. Thank you to SUU for providing so many opportunities to our students. SUU students are also coming to South to provide lessons using the arts.

South Elementary students will be honoring Veterans at an assembly on Monday November 11th at 11:00 p.m. The Master Singers will perform and the 1st grade will sing two songs: Sing for America and Thank a Vet.

South also recently had a very fun Halloween. There were fun student costumes, a Halloween parade and even the faculty and staff dressed up!

OBITUARIES

Lynette Halterman Fife

Our beloved Lynette Halterman Fife, more affectionately known to those who know her as “Nett” or “Nettie,” entered peacefully into eternal life to be with her handsome soldier, Antone, on November 9, 2019. A longtime resident of Cedar City, she was living at her residence in Anthem, Arizona, at the time of her passing. Lynette enjoyed a long and vibrant life of 95 years until very recently when cardiac issues associated with normal aging began to take their toll.

Lynette was born on September 15, 1924, in Enoch, Utah to Millard and Pearl Halterman. Her dear parents worked diligently to give her a happy childhood and cherished memories of “life on the farm.” Lynette attended Cedar City High School and after graduation, relocated to Los Angeles to work at North American Aviation where she built P-51 and B-25 bombers for the WWII effort. Her title of “Rosie Riveter” was one of her proudest accomplishments in life, second only to a lifelong devotion to her children and grandchildren. She was the embodiment of motherhood, and those of us who call her “mother” or “grandmother” have been blessed beyond measure to have her as our matriarch.

Lynette is preceded in death by her loving husband, Antone D. Fife; her father Millard and mother Pearl; siblings Jay, Eugene, George, Richard, Frank and Barbara; and grandson, Burke Fife. Antone, her “little handyman,” was the love of her life, and they shared 66 years of marriage before his passing in 2012.

After retiring from Valley View Medical Center as their switchboard operator, Lynette spent most of her time at home with her 12 grandchildren, all of whom she loved dearly.

She was a skilled baker and all-round excellent cook, with countless family meals prepared by her hands and served at her home on 800 West in Cedar City. The door to her kitchen was always open to anyone who wanted to stop by, and at any given time there may be 10 or more people seated at her table for no special occasion at all other than just to break bread at Lynette Fife’s bounteous table. Thanksgiving was her favorite day of the year, and the number of loved ones gathered around her table always tripled on that day. She also hosted Christmas morning brunch each year, and that is one of her family’s most cherished family traditions. Lynette loved to make bread, scones, pies, cinnamon rolls, fried chicken, chili sauce, and her famous “Yellow-Bowl Mac and Cheese.” When she wasn’t at home in the kitchen, she cherished the time spent with her siblings on jet-setting adventures all over the globe.

Lynette is survived by her 4 children Lettie Lorraine (Dale), Ryan (Tawna), Tona Lynne, and Annette (Rodney). She had 12 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren, 2 great-great grandchildren, as well as those beloved spouses who have married into the family. She also leaves behind a brother, Glen Halterman; and 3 sisters, Thora Goudge, Sue (Earl) Spencer, and Joyce Cook. There are countless numbers of extended family members and friends who will miss her dearly as well.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 16, 2019, at 12:00 noon at the Cross Hollows Stake Center, 2830 W Cody Dr, Cedar City, UT. A viewing will be held that same day at the church from 10:00-11:30 am. Interment will be in the Cedar City Cemetery under the direction of Southern Utah Mortuary.

The family wishes to extend their heartfelt gratitude and love to Angela and Terry Murphy for their tender and devoted care of our mother/grandmother during the last several years of her life. We also want to extend special thanks to Hospice of the Valley in Phoenix for their compassionate end-of-life care.

In lieu of flowers, the family has designated “A-VIP Assisted Living” for memorial contributions in Lynette’s name. The mailing address is 41309 North Yorktown Trail, Anthem, AZ 85086.

Willard Wood

Willard Nelson Wood, a man more comfortable in buckskin and born well after his time, left his family, friends, and the town he loved so dearly, on Friday, November 1, 2019.

Born on June 7, 1943, the youngest child of Willard Hunter and Runa Nelson Wood, Willard grew up among the sagebrush and tumbleweeds and red rocks of Cedar City, raising as much hell as a child possibly could. Who are we kidding: he raised hell until last week.

There is really no way to describe Willard or the impact he had on so many people in Cedar City. He was involved in deer hunting, scouting, archery, muzzle-loading, fishing, coyote hunting, and was more at ease casting a Mickey-Finn in Yankee Meadow Reservoir in hip waders on a moonless night than he was wearing a shirt. Seriously.

Willard was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, but you would be hard-pressed to find him at church on Sunday. No, Willard communicated with God in his own way, and found Boulder Mountain or the west desert a better tabernacle to invoke his prayers to his Maker.

Willard married Cathy Cason on April 27, 1962 in the Rock Church in Cedar City. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy, served on the USS Midway during the Viet Nam War, and was honorably discharged in 1965. He also served in the Utah National Guard with Headquarters Battery, 2nd Battalion, 222nd Field Artillery in Cedar City from 1985 until 1993. Willard and Cathy had five children: Todd, Gregg, Cody, Brady, and Mellissa. He and Cathy had 16 grandchildren; and while he was close to and loved all of them dearly, his eldest granddaughter, Kristina, had been his co-pilot during his adventures in the high desert valleys west of Cedar City and shared in his love of the silence and beauty of nature. O.K., yes: if he heard a coyote, he’d kill it. So, he enjoyed the silence, without the coyote howling.

Willard is survived by his wife, Cathy of fifty-seven years; (fifty-seven years! Mom, you deserve sainthood on that alone); sister, Marion (Gerald Hyatt); his children, Gregg (Nicola Camp), Cody (Sonja Shimmers-Wood) and Mellissa (Ben Hunt); sixteen grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and hundreds of friends who were and always will be considered family to those he left behind. He is preceded in death by his parents, Runa and Willard, his brother Jack, whom he has missed dearly for the last twenty-four years; eldest son, Todd, and infant son, Brady.

A celebration of Willard’s life took place on Wednesday, November 6, 2019 from 5-7 p.m. in the Rock Church, 75 East Center Street, Cedar City, Utah. A secondary viewing was held Thursday, November 7, from 9:30-10:30 a.m. Funeral services were also held in the Rock Church chapel from 11:00 a.m.-12:15 p.m. Willard’s final repose was in the Cedar City Cemetery following services and a funeral potato food fest following that in the Rock Church.

During the viewing, in lieu of flowers, people were asked to please bring some tumbleweeds, or a sagebrush, or a deer antler; or better yet, a favorite story of Willard, or favorite Willard joke –you know, the ones you can’t tell in church but you gut-wrenchingly laugh at anyway. Or donate to your favorite charity; or hug the ones you love a little tighter; and if you have loved ones that struggle with alcoholism and addiction, tighter still and tell them that you love them a little more often.

Oh, and God...? Say, if you happen to see Willard in the next little while, could we request that you not point him toward the bar, but give him directions to the closest fishing hole? We promise, you’ll love the results more. He might out-fish you, but you’ll have a blast!

We love you, Dad, you Old Fart!

Jeffrey R. Heaton

Jeffrey Robert Heaton, 31, was born August 10, 1988 in Cedar City, Utah, the youngest of nine children to Robert C. and Kay Lynn Heaton. He passed away at home from unknown causes on November 4, 2019.

Jeff went to Cedar High School and received his associate’s degree at SUU. Throughout his life he was blessed with many loyal friends from band, cross-country, climbing, and his other adventures. Jeff worked as a wildland firefighter before leaving to serve in the Brazil Manaus Mission.

Jeff was close with his large family. His siblings were his best friends and he was beloved by his nieces and nephews. He was our “IT guy”, fitness coach, and nutrition guide. He was fascinated by nutritional science and researched health extensively, offering personalized instruction to family members. He excelled in Pilates and running was always a part of Jeff’s life.

Jeff was passionate about writing, composing, and recording music. He mastered the trumpet in high school, performed vocals and keyboard with his band “Hero Machine”, and played the guitar and piano. He loved theater and spent much of this past year attending as many plays as he could.

Whether it was road trips across America, backpacking through Europe, or exploring Mexico, Jeff was always up for an adventure. He spent much of his life outside, from scouting activities to grand escapades. He loved taking long walks around town in the fresh air, and the mountain cabin was a special place of refuge.

Jeff was affected by mental illness for most of his adult life but it didn’t conquer him. Though he went through very hard times, he strove to be composed, articulate, and conscientious. He was always kind and protective towards his nieces and nephews and they will remember him lovingly. Through his suffering, he proved time and time again the quality of his character and his good heart.

We are especially grateful for the help of Southwest Behavioral Health Center, his treatment team, and club support. Jeff was very much himself over the past 18 months, and we will treasure these times of togetherness, good talks, and humor. We encourage anyone affected by mental illness to reach out to their community resources. You are not alone.

Robert and Kay, David (Kaprena), Lisa, Kristi Woolsey, Ben, Nate (Becky), Amy, Andrew (Emily), Ashley (Jason) Starr, and the entire Heaton family thank you for your outpouring of love and support.

Services were held on Saturday, November 9th, at 11:00 a.m. at the 9th Ward Chapel (256 South 900 West, Cedar City, UT). There was a viewing from 9:30-10:30 a.m. at the same location. Interment was in the Cedar City Cemetery under the direction of Southern Utah Mortuary. Online condolences can be sent at www.sumortuary.com.

OBITUARIES

Jami Eileen Vasquez McElfresh

Jami Eileen Vasquez McElfresh, age 39, unexpectedly passed away in her home on November 5th, 2019 in Paragonah, Utah.

She was born on October 7th, 1980, in Provo, Utah to James Milton and Jeanese Roberts McElfresh. Two years later they welcomed a beautiful sister to the family, Jennifer Jayne "JJ.", and the two of them took the family by storm, hand-in-hand.

Jami's childhood was spent living in such lovely states as Texas, Arizona and Utah. She later moved to Parowan with her family where she attended High School, having friends from all diverse backgrounds, including the Navajo community.

After High School Jami had several different jobs that she loved and excelled at, one of which was being a Nail Technician. Jami loved the beauty industry and appreciated dressing up and wearing makeup. She also loved to cook, learning from her Grandma Eileen and family. It blessed her being able to share this gift and talent with many.

Jami had the privilege of living with the wonderful Quezada family for years, where she'd learn to speak, read and write in Spanish.

Jami would later meet her future husband, Marcelino Vasquez, marrying on October 22nd, 2002, spending 12 beautiful years together, where she'd further fall in love with the Mexican culture, music, food and community - one in which she invested in, respected and adored; sharing her time teaching English classes to all who wanted to learn.

Jami had the joy of visiting and temporarily living in Mexico, where she was treated as a local, being as her dialect was exactly that of the city she was living in.

Jami was so very passionate about music, especially Tejano, in specific Selena Quintanilla Perez and other Bandas like Los Angeles Azules. She would sing in her car and dance 'til her heart was content. Jami loved Mexican soccer and Oscar De La Hoya's boxing team.

Jami treasured her time being a wife, homemaker and dog-mom of three, keeping her tiny family close to her heart. She loved all things Texas, including the Dallas Cowboys, where she'd cheer and celebrate, screaming loudly with her dad and baby sister.

Those who knew Jami throughout her life truly knew what a light she was to the world. She collected angels, believed in the meaning behind them and was a servant and advocate for those with mental health issues, as she struggled with her own. Jami is and was loved beyond measure, by more people than she could've ever imagined, in her short, but well lived life. She will never, and could never be forgotten.

"Por Siempre En Nuestros Corazones." Forever In Our Hearts.

Jami is survived by her parents, sister JJ. and many aunts, uncles and cousins whom she adored. She is preceded in death by her grandparents James Milton McElfresh, Eileen Arnold McElfresh, Floyd H. Roberts, Drexel Haslam Roberts, Uncle Lennis Joe Roberts, Aunt Sally Roberts and Aunt Cindy Roberts.

Funeral Services and a celebration of Jami's life will be held Saturday November 16th, 2019 at 12:00 PM in the Paragonah Ward Building at 79 North Main Street, Paragonah, UT- 84760.

A viewing will be held prior to the funeral, from 10:30 AM - 11:30 AM at the Paragonah Ward.

Interment will be in the Parowan City Cemetery. Arrangements under the direction of Affordable Funeral Services. Online condolences can be sent at www.affordablefuneralservices.com

We would like to express our thanks to the many who have called, text, e-mailed, stopped by, sent gifts and flowers and served in any and all capacities.

A special thanks to Milt, Amy and all of Jami's friends at Southwest Center.

In lieu of flowers, you may make a donation to NAMI, in honor of Jami.

Local resident, Mable Nelson turns 105

by Trinity PAJÓN

IRON COUNTY TODAY

Last week local resident Mable Nelson turned 105 years old.

Nelson was born in 1914 in Canada. At the age of six she immigrated to the United States and lived in Minnesota for much of her early life. After she married her husband and started a family, she moved to Southern California, where she spent most of her adult life.

Nelson has many hobbies she enjoys including sewing, art and bowling. She also participated greatly in volunteer work with the Presbyterian church.

In her 80s, Nelson was diagnosed with both breast and colon cancer. Due to her age, the doctors didn't feel it necessary to treat her for the breast cancer. However, they still agreed to perform surgery to treat the colon cancer. Despite lack of treatment for the breast cancer, she miraculously continued to live.

Nelson has been able to live through World War I, World War II, the Cold War, the Cuban Missile Crisis and the Vietnam War.

Happy Birthday Mable!

CEDAR CITY'S CHAPTER OF THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS are hoping their special collection boxes will bring in more coats and items this year to help those in need.

Coats for Kids campaign begins soon

by Kelsey KEENER

IRON COUNTY TODAY

Cedar City's chapter of the Knights of Columbus is preparing for its 7th annual Coats for Kids drive, to start after Thanksgiving.

Decorative boxes will be placed around town in local businesses so community members can donate their unwanted or unused coats and winter wear, which will be distributed by the Family Support Center. Several collection cans will also be placed throughout the area for monetary donations.

Last year, the Knights collected 900 items, including 470 coats, and were able to purchase 110 coats with donated funds. This year, the group hopes to exceed that number.

Boxes will be placed in the following locations the weekend following Thanksgiving: Cal Ranch; Christensen's;

IFA; Retro Fitness; Smith's; both State Bank of Southern Utah Locations; Walmart; the south Wells Fargo location; and Zion's Bank.

Collection cans will also be delivered at the same time to: All American Diner; Applebee's; Brick House Café; Bruno's Italian Deli; Bulloch Drug; Christensen's; Denny's; IFA; Market Grill; Mike's Tavern; Pizza Factory; Sizzler; Tag-N-Go Carwash; Township Pharmacy; and Wet Willy's.

Donations will be accepted until the week-end following Christmas. Any businesses or organizations interested in participating can contact Randy Rhoades at 702-981-9759.

Although the campaign is sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, members stress that it has become a community project and they hope to continue to get the community involved.

"It really is about the kids," said one of the Knights. "It's amazing how much need there is in our community."

FAITH

Be strong and of a good courage

JOSHUA 1:9

Discouragements and disappointments seem to be a part of life. When difficult moments arise, especially ones we feel we could have prepared better for, we can get discouraged because we didn't have the right or best answers we believe we should have had to prevent the problem or the pain.

I understand that there must be opposition in all things, but sometimes it can be discouraging that there seems to be so much of it. Perhaps that's why God reminds us to be strong and of a good courage.

(Joshua 1:9) He knew life would not be easy, but it would be worth it... as the rest of that familiar phrase goes. While I appreciate those sentiments and agree that it's all worth it; in our darkest hours, I feel God wants us to hear even more than that. Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. (Isaiah 41:10)

No matter our religion or our relationship with God, life still gets tough sometimes, very tough. We get discouraged, upset and we not only want to throw in the towel, we want to quit fighting altogether. It's difficult to fight when we don't see any way to win. We feel like we're facing Goliath without our sling, our lamps have run out of oil, the waves are too intimidating to set sail and the mountains are too high to climb. And yet, God keeps reminding us to not to be afraid because He will be with and help us. (Isaiah 41:13)

It takes courage to reach out for help, to pick up that towel and climb back in the ring. We don't have to fight alone. Isn't that part of why we meet together at church or elsewhere; to fellowship and strengthen each other? Religious people must do more than gather to plan and promote proselyting the kingdom of God. We are to help prepare people for that kingdom by protecting them from the wicked and worldly things trying to keep them out of it. (Isaiah 41:6) And God isn't just for our Sunday hallelujahs. He's with us through the hell and high water of Monday through Saturday.

No matter what your going through right now, let not your heart be troubled. (John 14:1-3) God still has a place prepared for you. Though you are wounded and weary, God's promise still stands true today; if you will trust Him and rely upon Him, you shall mount up with wings as eagles; run and not be weary; walk and not faint. (Isaiah 40:28-31) It doesn't mean you won't fall down or get discouraged. It means you're not alone. It means the Lord thy God will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. (Deuteronomy 31:6) May we do our best to not fail or forsake Him.

T-BIRDS STUN CORNHUSKERS IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

by Bryson LESTER

SUU ATHLETICS STRATEGIC COMMUNICATION

LINCOLN, Neb. — With two seconds remaining in double overtime, senior Cameron Oluyitan hit a jump shot for the Thunderbirds to put them on top of the Nebraska Cornhuskers, and ultimately give Southern Utah a 79-78 victory over their Big 10 Conference counterpart.

“Nebraska, being a Big Ten opponent, they’ve got a great coach and to go on their floor and get an opening week win is a testament to our guys and how far they’ve come with the work they put in this offseason,” SUU head coach Todd Simon said.

This is Southern Utah’s first road win against a Power Five opponent since they beat Colorado in 1996, along with being the program’s first-ever win against a Big Ten program. The Thunderbirds also became only the second-ever Big Sky team to win on the road against a Big Ten opponent.

The Thunderbirds are now 2-0 to start their season.

The Thunderbirds weren’t able to put up a lot of points early on, and midway through the opening half went on a four-plus minute scoreless streak to fall behind 19-12 early.

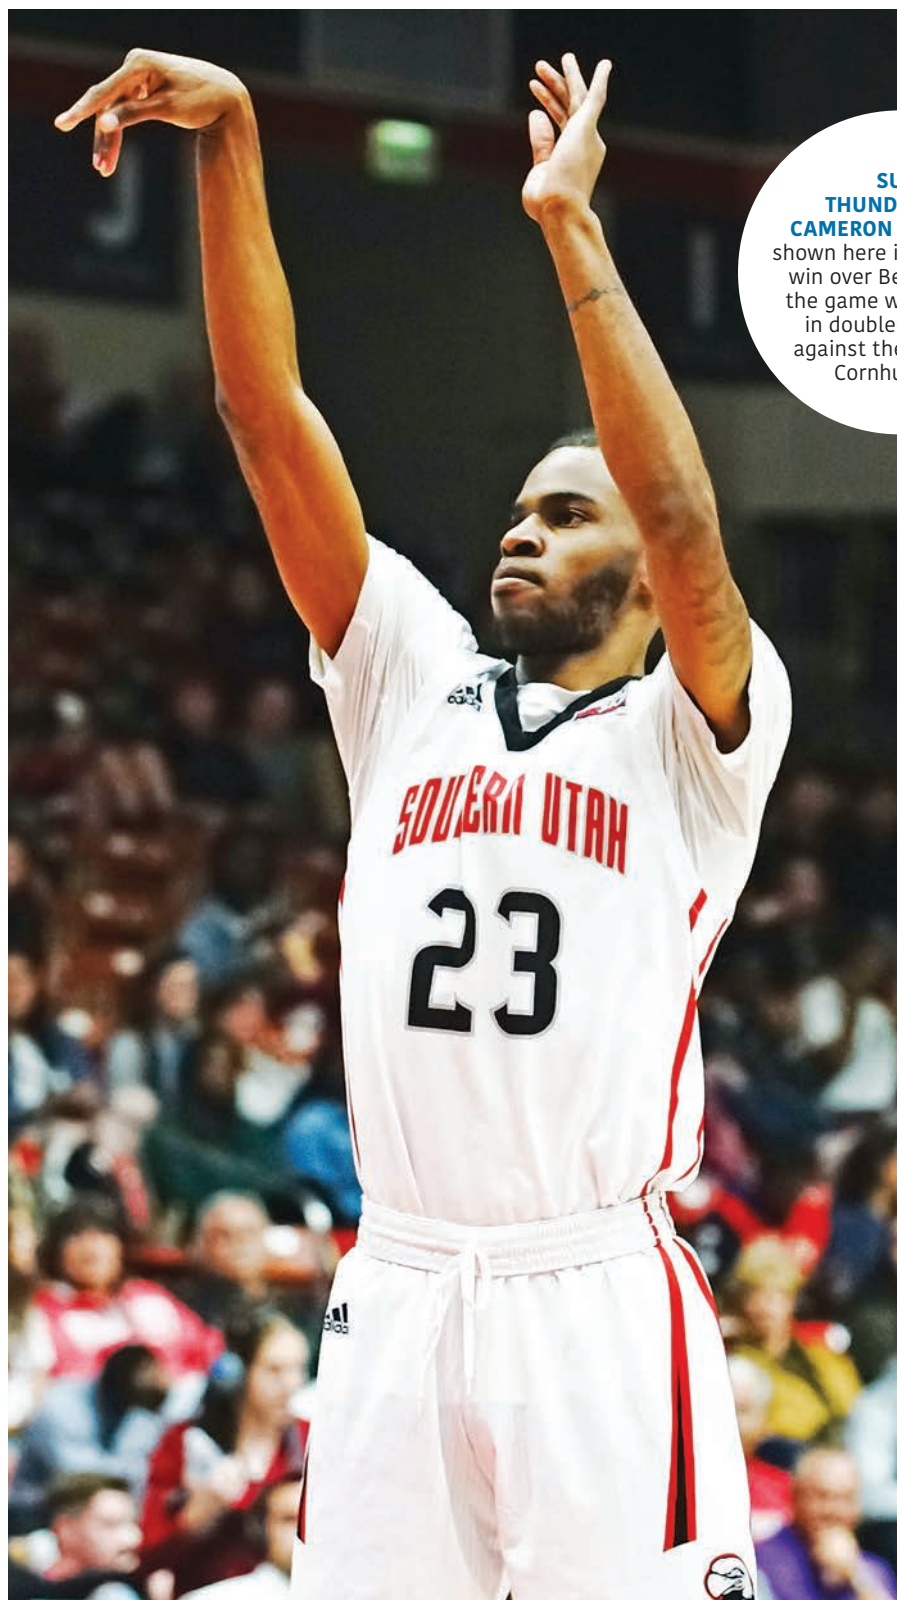

Nebraska stayed in control for the majority of the first half, including a 16-2 run over an eight minute stretch while forcing the Thunderbirds into a 1-of-15 slump from the field.

As the half came to a close Dre Marin hit a triple for the Thunderbirds and Maizen Fausett threw down a dunk to cut the Cornhusker lead to nine.

The T-Birds hit five of their last six shots of the opening half, while the Huskers hit three of their four, and the home team took a 37-26 advantage into the break.

Maizen Fausett led all players at the half with 11 points.

“We had a really tough initial start,” Simon said. “I don’t think we could be more cold to start a game if we tried, but to our guys credit they stayed the course, stayed together and made enough plays to win the game.”

The Thunderbirds rushed out to a 9-2 run at the start of the second half and cut the Nebraska lead to seven with 11:57 to play. They held the Huskers to 1-of-7 shooting from the field during that time as well.

Southern Utah continued to climb back in the contest and cut the Nebraska lead to just one point with 7:43 to play when Jakolby Long hit a layup. The Cornhuskers quickly responded with back-to-back jumpers to take a 58-53 advantage with 6:39 remaining.

The game stayed incredibly close down the stretch, and with just five seconds to play Dwayne Morgan went to the free throw line to take a 69-66 lead. Unfortunately for the Thunderbirds, the Cornhuskers hit a last-second triple to force overtime.

Neither team was able to create a big enough advantage in the first overtime period, and after five minutes the score stayed tied 72-72.

Ultimately, the T-Birds won in double overtime 79-78 thanks to Oluyitan’s jumper.

“We wanted to lift the floor and give our guys the space to make a play,” Simon said. “Cam has made that shot a million times in practice and he made a big time play.”

Dwayne Morgan led the Thunderbirds with 19 points and 11 rebounds.

“He hit huge free throws for us, he was 7-of-8 from the line, did a great job there and I was really proud of his effort and intensity,” Simon said.

Fausett finished with 13, while Oluyitan and 11 total. Both Marin and Long finished with 10.

The Thunderbirds will be back on the road today as they square off against the BYU Cougars in Provo, Utah. The game is part of the Maui Jim Classic on the Mainland.

Cardenas, Larsen set career-highs in road win over Utah Valley

by Kyle BIRNBRAUER

SUU ATHLETICS STRATEGIC COMMUNICATION

OREM — The Southern Utah women's basketball team opened their road season Saturday evening with a 71-58 win over the Utah Valley Wolverines. The Lady T-Birds are now 2-0 on the season for the first time since the 2016-17 season.

Rebecca Cardenas set a new career high in scoring, leading all scorers with 23 points in the win, most of them scored in the first half. She dropped in four three-pointers and also had four rebounds and two steals. Ashley Larsen set a new career high in rebounding with 13 rebounds, 10 defensive and three offensive. Harley Hansen was the only other Thunderbird to reach double-digit points with 13 and Darri Frandsen also contributed nine rebounds.

Things went back-and-forth to open the game, with neither team getting up by more than five points. After the Thunderbirds got out to a five-point lead on free throws from Claudia Armato, the Wolverines quickly tied the game up at 13-13 with 3:52 remaining in the quarter.

The T-Birds then went on one of the largest scoring runs in recent history, scoring 24 unanswered points over the next nine minutes of play. UVU was able to stop the bleeding with a bucket from Alexis Cortez, but found themselves in a 22-point hole. Southern Utah continued to put up points and held a 25-point lead

Cardenas had 19 points in the first half and was 4-for-6 from beyond the arc.

The Lady T-Birds cooled off in the second half, getting outscored 25-37, but the game never got closer than 13 points. SUU took their biggest lead of the game when they opened the fourth quarter with a triple from Jessica Chatman and a layup from Hansen to go up by 28. The Wolverines would go on a 19-4 run for the remainder of the game, but it wouldn't be enough as the Thunderbirds came away with the 71-58 victory.

The Thunderbirds will hit the road again tomorrow to take on another WAC opponent in Grand Canyon University.

T-Bird Volleyball sweeps Vikings at home

by Taylor WHITSON

SUU ATHLETICS STRATEGIC COMMUNICATION

The Southern Utah volleyball team defeated the Portland State Vikings 3-0 on Thursday evening for their sixth Big Sky Conference win. The T-Birds are now 13-12 overall and 6-7 in BSC play.

"Our offense found their mojo for the first time in a few weeks," said head coach Pete Hoyer. "I have to give credit to Corrin Peterson. She has been a consistent quarterback, for lack of better terms, for our team game after game. The hitters played aggressively and our defense stepped up in a phenomenal way in yet another new rotation."

Shannon Webb led the Thunderbirds in kills with 14, followed by Stacey Hone who had 12. Corrin Peterson dished out 35 assists. Defensively, Thea Leiataua tallied 10 digs followed closely by Peterson who had nine.

The Thunderbirds opened the first set by going up by four over the Vikings at the 10 point mark. SUU continued to carry their lead to 16-11 where the Vikings called a timeout. Returning from the break the Vikings went on a 3-0 scoring run, bringing them within three of SUU. The Thunderbirds answered Portland's scoring run with a 6-0 run of their own, pushing SUU's lead to eight at 22-14. The Thunderbirds closed the set with a kill from Madison Williams at 25-16.

SUU was the first to ten in the second set as well, this time leading by two at 10-8. After play continued, the Thunderbirds only lengthened their lead as they went up by five at 18-13. McKenzie Dowell closed the set for SUU with a kill at 25-17.

The Vikings held an early lead over the Thunderbirds at 11-8. SUU called a timeout at 15-10 in hopes to comeback from the five point deficit. Coming out of the break PSU pushed their lead to six at 18-12. The T-Birds went on a 4-0 scoring run to bring the gap within one at 21-20. A kill from Hone knotted the score at 21-21. SUU claimed the set 25-xx, sweeping the Vikings 3-0 in the set.

IT'S A WIN, BUT IT'S EARLY

The Southern Utah men's basketball team did something Saturday afternoon that is definitely being celebrated. Down by as many as 14 in the first half, the T-Birds rallied, survived a buzzer-beater that forced overtime, then got the game-winning basket from Cameron Oluyitan with two seconds left to give them a 79-78 win over Nebraska in double overtime.

On the road. Against a school from a Power 5 conference.

It's a 2-0 start for SUU, and it comes with a message. It's fine to celebrate, but please don't read too much into this win.

For starters, the Cornhuskers opened their season Nov. 5 with an awful home loss in the debut of new coach Fred Hoiberg. The visiting Highlanders pulled away in the second half and won, 66-47.

UCR hit 12 of its 23 field goals from 3-point range in the victory, held Nebraska to 29 percent shoot-when the Big Sky season gets going.

One major key needs to happen if SUU wants to have a realistic shot at reaching the NCAA Tournament. Winning the Big Sky tournament in Boise will be necessary and finishing in the top four in the regular season – as the media has predicted – will make a world of difference in reaching the goal.

Since the league welcomed everyone into the postseason tournament four years ago, the matchups in the title game have all involved those who had the opening-round bye. By no strange coincidence, the No. 1 seed has advanced to the NCAAs each time – Weber State, North Dakota, and Montana for the last two seasons.

It's not hard to root for this team, but the reality of the situation can't be overlooked. One game, one winning moment at a time is the only way to keep your sanity and not celebrate too quickly.

“It's fine to celebrate, but please don't read too much into this win.”

» In a related note from the SUU win: It would have been nice to hear the radio call somewhere, but KSUB was airing a talk show, the LSU-Alabama football game was playing over 1210 AM, and the signal from ESPN 97.7 FM in St. George dies by the time you reach Toquerville. The only way that station gets picked up here in Cedar City – SUU's home – is through the TuneIn app.

RANDOM Thoughts

ing, and outrebounded them by a mammoth 49-29 count.

The biggest reason this is important: UC Riverside won a grand total of 10 games last season. Nebraska was coming off a season where it had a 19-17 record, reached the NIT and won a game there.

Mirror image from this result in Lincoln? You be the judge.

SUU outrebounded Nebraska 58-44, held the Huskers to just 3-of-13 shooting in the extra periods, and held on for what was truly an outstanding win.

The work isn't done, though. The T-Birds have to deal with BYU at the Marriott Center tonight, then head to Pauley Pavilion on Nov. 18 to face the UCLA Bruins. Win those, and it could be the start of something really big Everyone has an app for things these days – even radio stations – but not all of us can be on our phones all the time, especially in our cars.

The next two T-Bird games will be on TV – BYU-TV for the game against the Cougars and Pac-12 Network for the game against the Bruins – but a radio option is needed for maximum audience.

Being on a radio station that doesn't reach your hometown isn't an option, whether it's available on an app or not. It shouldn't be that hard to find a way to fix the problem.

TIGER LILY

This mama cat was found with two kittens, Peter and Wendy; both already adopted. She has been fixed and now she needs a home for herself; not in Neverland, but always in your heart and home.

TORNADO

This fuzzy black female looks a little rough after being out in the cold last week, but she is definitely an F-5 funnel of fur, full of energy and loves to play.

GEMINI

This little guy has an identical twin. No, not a misguided clone, but a cuddly companion. They were brought in together and love to play together.

FLUFFY

He is a very cute kitty with a good heart who is ready to fill a good home with meows of love.

MRS. DARLING

"Second red laser dot to the right and straight on 'til morning." This mama and her three kittens will be ready to go home in about two more weeks. They were found together and have been together ever since.

MAPLE

He was found all alone but likes to be around other kittens. He's as sweet as syrup and ready for someone to love.

To view these cute kittens and adopt a new friend visit the Cedar City Animal Adoption Center, 1303 W Kitty Hawk Dr, (435) 586-2960, Mon-Fri 8 AM to 6 PM and on Sat 9 AM to 1 PM.

Message in a Bottle

Over time, people have tucked messages into bottles and thrown them out to sea. Sometimes these messages are found long after they were sent. They each have a special story to tell.

Oldest Message in a Bottle Found!

The world's oldest known message in a bottle was found half-buried at a West Australian beach almost 132 years after it was tossed into the Indian Ocean. It was part of an experiment by German mariners to discover faster shipping routes by seeing where the messages drifted. The message asked anyone finding it to contact German authorities telling where it was found. Thousands of these bottles were thrown overboard over a 69 year period.

The message was dated June 12, 1886. What year was it found if it was 132 years old when it was discovered?

10-Year-Old's Message Found

On September 12, 1990, a ten-year-old English girl named Zoe threw a bottle with a message overboard from a ferry. Twenty-three years later while walking along a dike, a Dutch couple found the bottle with her message. They sent a note to her childhood home and reached her!

Use the code to read Zoe's message:
